PRAYER

Father of mercy, you have loved us so deeply that you call us your children. Give us a heart that seeks your face and trusts your promises. When we are burdened, make us poor in spirit and open to your grace. Teach us to be meek without weakness, merciful without keeping score, pure in heart, and faithful to justice. Through the blood of the Lamb, cleanse what is sinful in us and strengthen us when discipleship brings hardship. Make our lives signs of your peace, until we rejoice with all your saints before your throne.

Amen.
