REMEMBERING OUR FALLEN:

The Meaning of the Red Poppy

Red poppies stand as a symbol of remembrance and sacrifice, honoring all the service members who have given their lives in service.

Made famous during World War I, these bright red flowers were the first to push through the churned-up, war-scarred soil of the battlefields across Flanders, Belgium and France.
Canadian medical officer Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae penned the classic 1915 poem "In Flanders Fields" after watching the poppies bloom over the graves of fallen comrades.

These bright red blooms became a lasting symbol of sacrifice, hope, and remembrance. Wearing a poppy this month is a meaningful way to prayerfully honor our fallen soldiers and show gratitude for all service members and their families.

Let us keep all veterans, active-duty military, and the families of the fallen in our prayers this month.

Advent

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas.

Our Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36). Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas.
