From the Gospel according to Luke 12:13-21

FOCUS ON REALLY REAL & NOT on VANITY

Today, Jesus is inviting us to a much deeper 'awareness.' We should be cautious about vanity and should be able to focus on reality. This world with all its wonder and richness, is like our simple breath.

During winter if we get out and exhale a breath, then we may see the breath coming out like a mist. It would be visible for a while and then it disappears forever. It simply vanished.

All the wealth we may have today and will be accumulating tomorrow, is like that simple breath! Nothing on this Earth is permanent. Everything keeps on changing. Philosophy would say even change is not permanent!

There is only one thing that is permanent, and that is God. In the first reading from The Book of Ecclesiastes Qoheleth says all things are vanity!

We all work so hard for this vanity. The great misfortune would be to leave all these vanities to someone else who never labored for them. We should identify the real and work for that.

St Paul, in today's second reading, advise us to put to death the parts of us that are earthly including evil desires, greed, idolatry and lying etc. He is telling us "Think of what is above, not of what is on earth."

In today's Gospel Jesus is warning us against 'greed.' We all need material things on earth to live a better life. Neither Jesus nor the Word of God is against the possession of material things, but against greed and selfishness. And it is here that, if we don't share with others, it becomes a sin. For whatever we have, is from the Grace of God.

*Let us put to death our own greed, avarice and selfishness. Leaving what is here on earth, let us focus on what is above, the Heaven.
God may help us all, Amen.*

A Big Thanks to you all!!

MISSION APPEAL INDIA

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

From the depths of my heart, I extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to each one of you for the gracious and wholehearted welcome we extended to my beloved Bishop Pauly from India, during his recent visit to St. Aloysius family.

Your prayerful presence, generous contributions and joyful spirit of service made the day truly memorable not only for the Bishop, but also for our entire community. From: the decorations, liturgies, to the music, hospitality, food after Spanish Mass, and all the behind-the-scenes work - you came together as one body in Christ. The Indian Malayalam speaking community, the Spanish speaking community and the host- the English-speaking community we all together made St Aloysius a real International Home of Love.

My beloved bishop Pauly himself expressed how deeply moved he was by your faith, unity and love.

Thank you one and all for being a living testimony of our parish's warmth and dedication. May the Lord bless you all abundantly for your goodness.

With gratitude and prayerful blessings,

Fr Reju Pynadath Johny
