From the Gospel according to Luke 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples:

*"Do not be afraid any longer, little flock,
for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.
Sell your belongings and give alms.
Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out,
an inexhaustible treasure in heaven
that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.
For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.*

*"Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding,
ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.
Blessed are those servants
whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.
Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself,
have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.
And should he come in the second or third watch
and find them prepared in this way,
blessed are those servants.
Be sure of this:
if the master of the house had known the hour
when the thief was coming,
he would not have let his house be broken into.
You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come."*

*Then Peter said,
"Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?"
And the Lord replied,
"Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward
whom the master will put in charge of his servants
to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?
Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so.
Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant
in charge of all his property.
But if that servant says to himself,
'My master is delayed in coming,'
and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants,
to eat and drink and get drunk,
then that servant's master will come
on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour
and will punish the servant severely
and assign him a place with the unfaithful.
That servant who knew his master's will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will
shall be beaten severely;
and the servant who was ignorant of his master's will
but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating
shall be beaten only lightly.
Much will be required of the person entrusted with much,
and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more."*

A Big Thanks to you all!! MISSION APPEAL INDIA

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

From the depths of my heart, I extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to each one of you for the gracious and wholehearted welcome we extended to my beloved Bishop Pauly from India, during his recent visit to St. Aloysius family.

Your prayerful presence, generous contributions and joyful spirit of service made the day truly memorable not only for the Bishop, but also for our entire community. From: the decorations, liturgies, to the music, hospitality, food after Spanish Mass, and all the behind-the-scenes work - you came together as one body in Christ. The Indian Malayalam speaking community, the Spanish speaking community and the host- the English-speaking community we all together made St Aloysius a real International Home of Love. My beloved bishop Pauly himself expressed how deeply moved he was by your faith, unity and love.

Thank you one and all for being a living testimony of our parish's warmth and dedication. May the Lord bless you all abundantly for your goodness.

With gratitude and prayerful blessings,

Fr Reju Pynadath Johny

Administrator St Aloysius Catholic Parish, Bessemer.
