YOU ARE THE MESSENGER
LUKE 10:12, 17-20

In today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah 66: 10-14 we read, "as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you." Here is one of the rare descriptions of God in the Bible that 'God is the mother.' It exposes the feminine side of God. This God, our mother would provide us with comfort and abundant peace as she did for Jerusalem.

In the Gospel today, Jesus sends out seventy-two disciples on a mission. It is interesting to note in the Original Hebrew Bible, Book of Genesis, chapter 10, the number of the known nations in the world at that time, were seventy-two! Therefore, all the nations on the earth were considered by Jesus.

Jesus is instructing the seventy-two to pray to the Master of the harvest to send out laborers for His harvest. Prayer is a must for any messenger. Prayer helps us to be focused, to be inspired, and to be ever trusting in the providence of God. Jesus makes it very clear that the harvest is already there and in plenty. The question would be as a laborer do we identify the harvest for us?

There was a young man who was struggling to find the purpose and meaning of his life. He felt lost and aimless. One day he met an old Master. This Master listened to the young man patiently and replied, "You know, the world doesn't need more people who are waiting to be told what to do. It needs more people who see a need and simply start doing something about it." The young man spends long time thinking about this. Later that week, he noticed a persistent problem in his neighborhood: litter. Instead of waiting for the city, or a social group, he, all alone, simply started picking it up himself! At first it felt too small, insignificant. But slowly, others noticed. Some joined him. Eventually the neighborhood started to look cleaner, and a sense of pride began to emerge. He realized that the 'harvest' was there all along; he just needed to be a 'laborer'!

Do we recognize the harvest needs around us? There are souls hungry for comfort, for reconciliation, for peace, for healing and for different needs. Do we see them? Or are we waiting for someone else to step up? We cannot be waiting for someone else to be the laborer, because we are the laborers sent by Jesus to the family, to the spouse, to the children, to the workplace etc.

The laborer must be a man of simplicity and have absolute Trust in God. Jesus does not demand any qualifications to be His laborer. Whatever limitations we may have, it's all okay with Him. The One who is sending us is all powerful and we must trust in Him. Jesus is telling us "GO," go with what you have, what you are and trust that God will work through you.

The seventy-two returned to Jesus with joy. Their simplicity and trust in God bore abundant fruit. Let us also go forth from this Eucharistic Table, trying our best to recognize the harvest around us and be willing to take the steps for that. Let us be trusting messengers of God's love and peace to a world in need of laborers.

God may guide us, Amen.

With lots of concern & prayers
Father Reju Pynadath Johny
